

Hurry now and upgrade to IPACS TradeNet Ent II (.Net) Today !

IPACS TradeNet

Enterprise II is IPACS's latest true Internet enabled Trade and Customs Declaration EDI software that is specially designed for companies that require multiple users and Internet environments.

It adopts the latest Internet Technology to greatly enhance the productivity and efficiency for trade and customs declarations.

IPACS TradeNet Ent II is developed on a 3-tier architectural design on Microsoft .Net Technology.

Running on Microsoft's SQL database, the stable & scalable platform allows enterprises to optimize their business operations through the following:

Sharing information through Integration of TradeNet Interface with backend systems.

Centralized information & consolidated reporting for better control & knowledge sharing amongst business units.

Multi-sites deployment capability via the Internet/ Intranet or leased lines depending on transaction volume.

Increase database stability & system availability.

Enhanced security & flexibility in user profiling.

Achieve Work Flexibility and Increase Productivity !!

Key Features

Easy-to-use & customizable features such as personalized menu bar & frequently used functions.

Interface to MS Applications such as Excel, Words, PDF, Email, Fax & exportability to HTML & text file formats.

Automatic & Scheduler based reporting print outs.

For more details
Call IPACS now at sales hotline – 65 64913999